

On behalf of:

Federal Ministry
for the Environment, Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety

European
Climate Initiative
EUKI

of the Federal Republic of Germany

Convening Multi-Stakeholder Processes

Trainer:

Stefan Friedrichs, Public One, Berlin
Prof. Dr. Stefan Jung, Public One, Berlin

Tentative Programme

Module 0: Introduction

- Getting to know the participants
- Presentation of the agenda
- Introduction to the online platform
- Agreeing on forms of work

Module 1: Collaboration is becoming more necessary and more difficult

- Why complex challenges do not tolerate simple solutions
- The limitations of conventional collaboration
- A brief history of Multi-Stakeholder-Dialogues

Module 2: Shaping multi-stakeholder dialogues professionally

- Multi Stakeholder Dialogue Canvas
- Resources and Facilitation
- The difference between method and attitude

Module 3: Unconventional, Stretch Collaboration is becoming essential

- Stretch collaboration abandons the illusion of control
- There is more than one whole
- Listen for possibility rather than for certainty

Module 4: Deep-Listening and Dialogue within Multi-Stakeholder-Settings

- Four ways of conversation
- Deep listening and generative dialogues
- Leading from the future

Terms of Participation:

Participation is restricted to EUKI implementers and implementing partners and limited to 20 people. All participants attending the training will receive a Certificate.

We will confirm your participation in a separate e-mail.

Should you not be able to attend, please do inform us asap that we can reallocate your place to a participant from the waiting list.