

Hungarian EUKI Community Conference

5 & 6 October 2022, Kossuth Klub, Múzeum u. 9, Budapest, 1088 Hungary

Day 1

---

9:30 – 10:00 Registration & Welcome Coffee

10:00 – 10:15 Welcome by

- Ulrike Leis, Deputy Director of the European Climate Initiative (EUKI)
- Julia Gross, German Ambassador to Hungary

10:15 – 11:45 Panel discussion: Current chances and opportunities for the Hungarian green transition

Moderator: Peter Olajos, President of CEEweb

This event will be streamed via the EUKI Academy.

- Noémi Dálnoky, Hungarian Ministry of Regional Development and Utilization of EU Funds
- Matthias Casper, Counsellor of European Climate Policy, German Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Climate Action (BMWK)
- Barbara Kovács, Head of the Department for Climate Policy, Hungarian Ministry of Technology and Innovation (TIM)
- László Szabó, Director, REKK Foundation for Regional Policy Co-operation in Energy and Infrastructure (REKK Foundation)

11:45 – 12:15 Coffee Break

12:15 – 13:45 “ConversTations”, Moderator: Csaba Mezei, General Secretary of CEEweb

Introduction of all Hungarian EUKI projects in a gamified manner

13:45 – 15:00 Lunch

15:00 – 17:30 Climate Action Simulation with En-ROADS Climate Policy Simulator

Moderated group exercise of interactive climate policy simulation. Commitment is needed by participants to engage for the whole duration of the session.

- Viktor Jósa, CliMates

18:00 – 20:30 Gala Dinner

Day 2

---

9:30 – 10:00 Registration & Welcome Coffee

10:00 – 10:15 Welcome and introduction by Aleksandra Khirv, Project Lead CEEweb

10:15 – 11:45 EUKI projects exchange I, Moderator: Aleksandra Khirv, CEEweb

Each project shares lessons learned, success factors and challenges before running a quick Q&A session.

- “From advocacy to implementation. How EUKI projects helped community energy in Hungary”: Ágnes-Szalkai Lőrincz and Bence Kovács, MTSVZ
- “Breaking barriers to low-carbon investment in Budapest”: Ada Ámon, Head of Department for Climate and Environmental Affairs, Municipality of Budapest
- “Making the carbon taxing FAIR”: Anna Bajomi, Habitat for Humanity Hungary

11:45 – 12:15 Coffee Break

12:15 – 13:45 EUKI projects exchange II, Moderator: Aleksandra Khirv, CEEweb

Each project shares lessons learned, success factors and challenges before running a quick Q&A session.

- “Complexity of the biomass energy – lessons learnt”: Adam Harmat, WWF Hungary
- “How to predict CO2 emissions from transport - TEDiT tool ”: Ágoston Princz, CAAG
- “Consolidating Ambitious Climate Targets with End-Use Sufficiency (CACTUS)”: Mária Bartek-Lesi, REKK

13:45 – 15:00 Lunch

15:00 – 16:30 “Walk-shop” around Budapest, Moderation: Katalin Tarr, CAAG

Guided field visit around Budapest city center with the visit of “good and bad practices” of EU funding allocation in Hungary

18:00 – 20:30 Dinner

