

Information on organised bus to Tata | 20 June

Multi-Stakeholder Workshop

“Improving Central and Eastern European policy responses to protect, restore and sustainably manage peatlands in the fight against climate warming”

Meeting time at: 8:30 (CET). Departure: 8:45 (CET)

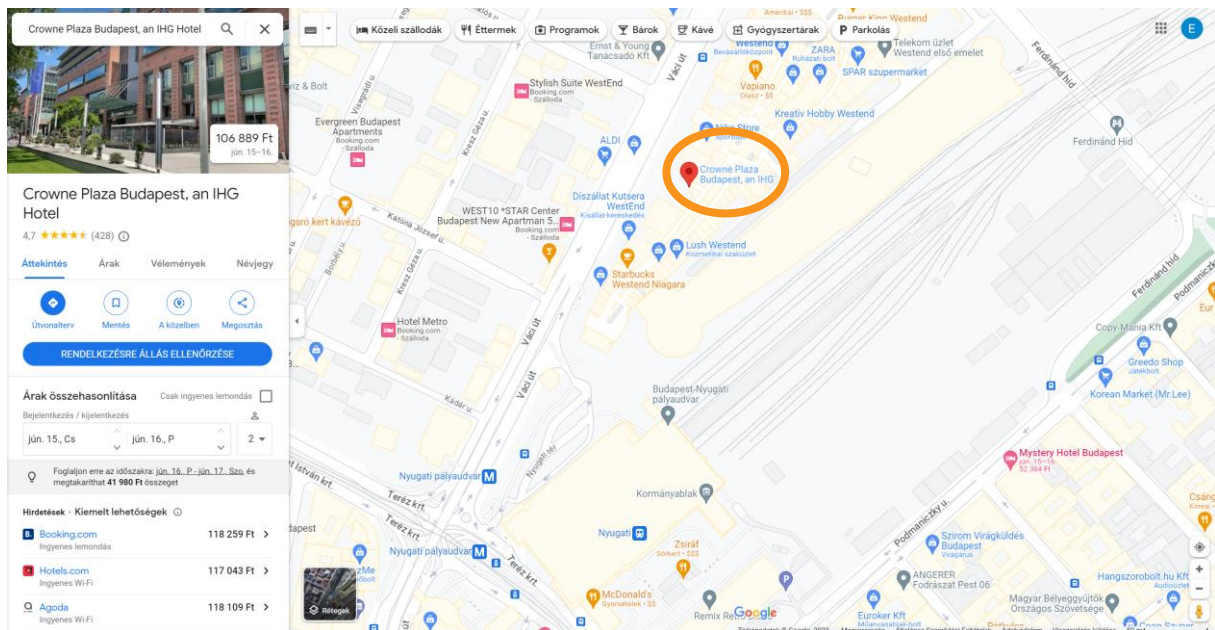

Departure from: Find on maps

Budapest, Váci út 1-3, 1062

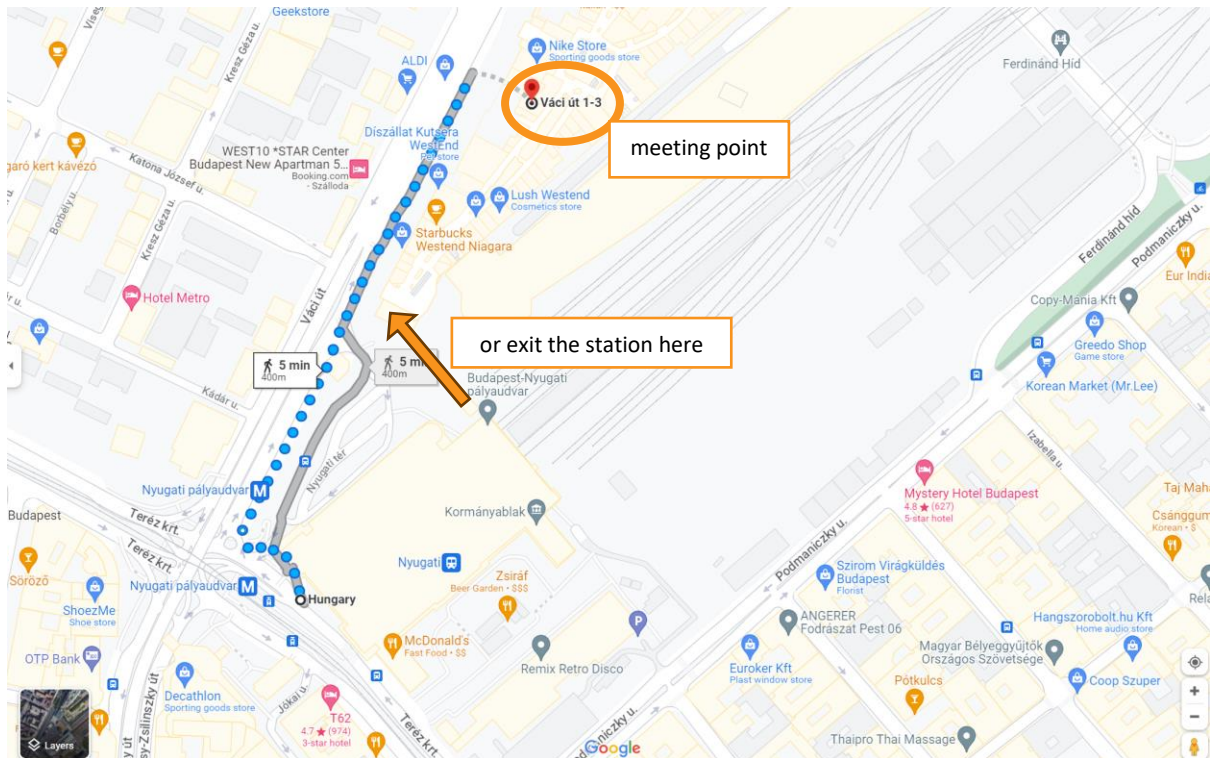

in front of Crowne Plaza Budapest, an IHG Hotel

47.51302569615016, 19.058422830858305

The organised bus (a mid-sized bus for 35 people) departs from a few minutes’ walking distance from Budapest-Nyugati Railway Station and is picking the participants up from the parking space in front of Crowne Plaza Hotel (which is part of Westend Shopping Center).

Directions from the main entrance of Nyugati-pályaudvar (Nyugati railway station): turn right when exiting the building and walk about 400 meters as shown on the below map. Or in case of arriving by train, exit the station directly towards Váci út.

Point of departure is in front of the building below:

The bus will be similar to the one in the below photo. On the spot, look for the sign CEEweb Workshop.

Before departure, we will make sure that everyone is on board. Please make sure to be on time as the bus cannot wait longer than 15 minutes at the point of departure (8:30-8:45).

Please, inform (call) us on any of the contact points below, in case of delays or obstacles that might emerge and hinders you of getting to the bus on time:

Eliza Óhegyi, CEEweb Email: eohegyi@ceeweb.org Phone: +36 30 473 9424	Orsolya Nyárai, CEEweb Email: onyarai@ceeweb.org Phone: +36 70 429 0370
--	--

Estimated arrival to the workshop venue (2890 Tata, Tópart sétány 2. Új kajaház Ökoturisztikai Központ): 10:00-10:15.

We are looking forward to meeting you!

Information on organised bus to Budapest | 20 June

Departure from the site of the field trip (Tata, Fényes Forrás Tanösvény 2890 Tata, Fényes Fásor): 18:00 (CET).

Arrival (location is same as that of the departure): Budapest, Váci út 1-3, 1062, in front of Crowne Plaza Budapest. Estimated arrival: 19:30 (CET).